

Virginia Elsie Finnemore

July 6, 1936 - October 2, 2016

Virginia Elsie Finnemore, 80, of Orlando, passed away Sunday, October 2, 2016. Virginia was a talented saxophone player and enjoyed listening to jazz and swing music. She also spent time reading and crocheting.

Virginia is predeceased by her husband, Raoul Finnemore and father, Douglas Erhardt. She is survived by her daughter, Dawn Ellen Finnemore (wife, Diane); mother, Mary Erhardt; brother, David Erhardt; niece, Mary Anne Erhardt; and grandnieces, Kara Anne, and Brianna Catherine.

Internment will take place at a later date at Greenwood Cemetery in Avon, Connecticut.

Tribute Wall

WW

“ Ginger and Raoul were dear friends for most of our lives. We will remember Ginger for her kindness, easy laugh and great friendship.

Lorraine and Bill Wixon

William Wixon - October 04, 2016 at 12:22 PM

DC

“ Virginia was a member of the Class of 1954 Farmington H. S. Farmington, Ct. She is certainly remember for her love of music and her expertise on the saxophone. She was always ready for a smile to her classmates. The Class of 54 is indeed saddened to hear of her death. Dolores Chauvy, Secretary, Class of 1954.

Dolores Chauvy - October 04, 2016 at 07:46 AM

DC

“ Denise Coschignano lit a candle in memory of Virginia Elsie Finnemore

denise coschignano - October 03, 2016 at 10:38 PM