“ It was brung to my attention recently of one of my former patient passing. Although I am 2 years, too late, this truly has hurt my heart. Virginia Gabriel was a bright light in any room she entered. I am using this picture of my son to show her thoughtfulness towards me. She gifted me this beautiful set after I told her I was expecting. Aside from her great taste (she was always in beautiful outfits, a true fashionista.) she was kind, humble and realistic about life. She gave me great insight, great advice, and we shared great genuine laughs together. We formed a great relationship. I will always remember her in this light. To her family, my sincerest and deepest condolences. Virginia left a mark everywhere she went and she will hold a special place in my heart. May she forever rest in paradise.

“ Ann was a true delight. We loved to talk about old times and sometimes I had to tell her that my iPhone was running out of power. The photo below was taken at grandma Yarbrough"s old home near Chisca of me, my brother Willard, and Ann when we all quite young. The car is our old 1937 Hudson terraplane that we had at that time.

“ How is it possible that the person I always thought was invincible is gone ... Mom time was so short although you were 85, Dad doesn't know what to do without you ! Bringing things to funeral home was so odd because I felt you saying iron that gown better :) I have to be perfect . I know you are 100% perfect in heaven ! You are truly missed ...
