“ To my other father in life, I know you enjoyed never being called an "in law"; however, you were a dad whom got a son you never had. I love you and will forever miss your joker mentality in life that loved your family, your wife Chef Nancy, and most importantly Jesus.

“ *Dear Dad,
As much as we all miss you; I know you are now home, you are healed, and you are walking hand in hand with Mom again. Thank you for your love and guidance through the years and teaching me to never give up, to be persistent, and stay strong. I hope I made you proud and know that I did my very best to make sure you were well taken care of. You were also a wonderful Papa to Caleb. I promise to keep your memories and traditions alive. Enjoy Heaven and please give Mom a hug and kiss for me.
Love always and forever,
Emily Maratta*

I remember the day your dad met your mom. For their first date they went to Disney world, she said she wanted to see how patient he was because of the long lines. He won her heart . Sorry for your loss but you are right he is with the live of his life. Robin

Our hearts are torn once again. I find peace only in knowing that you are in the loving arms of God our Father. Wayne you were such a good little brother and will be missed so much.

I've only talked to Wayne a couple times and this was years ago. We were in touch because we both shared the last name of Stavale and were trying to sort out our connections. I am truly sorry for the loss to all of his family and friends.
