“ Will was a bright light who was gracious and who unified all those he met, especially his co-workers at transFORM. I was so blessed to have known him. My sincere condolences to his wife, children, parents and siblings. Will is one of the great ones that should still be here with us. Much love to you Will.

“ I am heartbroken to learn of Will's passing. I have known and worked with Will for 15 years. When I first met him he was a 20 something year old working 2 or 3 jobs. He was always one of the hardest working people I know. I will always think of him as a King among men. He was kind, intelligent, introspective, and multi-talented. He was quiet but if you were lucky enough to be his friend he would share his thoughts with you. I could always count on him. We shared many a laugh on countless days at work. He was like a younger brother/son to me but wise beyond his years. I remember one day when I called him on the verge of tears and he consoled me and let me know it would all be fine. He was beyond special. He shared his endless love for his children, wife and family proudly. I was so overjoyed when he shared with me he was getting married and then when he was buying his first house and moving his family to Florida. We stayed in touch and I promised to visit the next time I came to Florida. Oh Will, you traveled far and wide in your too short life. You touched so many souls along the way. I will miss you deeply. Rest with the angels and keep watching over us as you always have. You are forever in my heart my friend. Andrea Gary

“ Will was a selfless person, I've been honored to have known him for 23 years. He's been a blessing to me the past 13 years. He opened his home to me during my darkest days, we've become friends and brothers since then. As I remember the experiences we shared, the stupid jokes, trips, cookouts, bike rides and conversations I tear up, nod and smile. Will's impact on me has influenced the life I have now. I was fortunate enough to express that to him before his passing. To his family I sent my condolences.

Gone too soon yet beyond our control. Williford as I sometimes called him has made a huge impact on many as I'm reading some of the comments and as I think of him I shake my head and smile. This Brother is and will always be as Awesome as they come. I know the Creator has his place set along side of his for William... S.I.P. In Eternity my Friend For Life.... Continued Blessings ❤️✝️🌹🙏💪🌟🎯

“ Will, from the first day we meet showed me how to win. He showed me nothing but love and we became good friends instantly. Will showed me a lot of things. He showed my some skills in carpentry, he gave me the contact information to a security company when I needed money, he was a friend when I needed advice. Will was God sent and a blessing to anyone who he came in contact with. I will forever hold a place in my heart for you bother. Love always K

“ I remember when we first met and you told me you had a daughter in my head I was like ohhhhhh boyyyyyy. But I met that little sassy 4 year old and the rest is history. You are such an amazing dad to all 3 but you set the marker with Kyra. She’s grown now and making her own decisions so she’ll need your watchful eye.

“ He left some of him behind with us all. Kyra, lil will, Brook..... he will stay with us forever threw y'all.the little things you do will remind everybody about him from his sweaty nose to thinking you know more than ME. Let’s keep his kids and wife with us. We all he still going to tell us what to do someway somehow. If you was around him for more than a week he tried to get a job for you.

“ My King. This still doesn't feel right. You are my best friend. Every moment spent was a good time. My soul mate. The way our numbers aligned seemed to good to be true. I will love you forever. You were amazing to everyone and anyone who didn't think so Just wasn't ready to receive your teachings. I promise Little Will, Brooke and I will talk to you every day. I know you are with me and I know you will watch over us. I'm glad I have all the pictures you would take and all the random videos that I then thought were silly and should have been erased. We all had good times with you and you putting out that “Bat Call” and bringing everyone together was always the best. Brooke of course is right next to me telling me to put “Daddy I Love you and I miss you. You are the best and you were the best Dad in the whole wide world 🥺 sad face because I miss you ❤️💕🖤🥺” (as you know all of those emojis are her idea) and I'm sure you are so proud of how Little Will has been taking care of us this week acting just like you. Lol. Oh and don't kill me but Ive been letting Rugger sleep in the room by your closet. I Love You King and you better rest now because I'll be there one day to join you. Rest Easy My Love.

“ I'm going to miss you so much cuzo. I mean i still cant believe im writing this smh 😞. You've been for and with me during some of my roughests moments in my life. We been in the trenches together in our early 20's tryng to navigate our way from boys to men and we both did it. You've always been some1 i admired and looked up to even tho i was older. You showed me that you have to be a jack of all trades in life in order to provide for your family and i still cant do it how you did it. You was a special 1 cuzo and i swear imma miss you. Im a bonified chef now but you were even their wit me in 2001 in my early cookin years and witnessed me try 2 fry up some imitation crab meat lol. We watched them joints swell up like balloon in the pan 🍳and we joked about that 4 years. I luv u will and imma DO my best to make u proud in my profession. We all miss you so much and you was the epicenter for all the get togethers. You was the life of the Party & now the rest of heavens angels will enjoy your luving presence the same way we all did. I luv you Will and i'm going to miss you cuzo 😞.
